INTRODUCTION

First of all, congratulations and thank you for buying Trainer Track Stats NH 2006/7, the leading statistical analysis of racehorse trainer patterns. Over the past five seasons, the trainers in this guide have all earned their place by consistently leading their horses into the winners' enclosure. But the key to this guide is that most of the trainers have a record that is negative overall. That is, if you'd bet all of their horses at the track, you'd have made a loss.

However, by carefully selecting specific types of race in which the trainer excels, Trainer Track Stats NH 2006/7 (TTS) provides a unique insight that is not available anywhere else. This further breakdown pinpoints with laser accuracy the trainer specialities that you need to focus on.

By only betting horses at 14/1 or shorter, TTS followers do miss the occasional big priced winner. But when putting this guide together, I decided that consistency of winners and shorter losing streaks is the route forward, and that's been borne out over the years. Below, you'll find a short section on how to use TTS, which I hope is very straightforward. If you have any questions or comments on anything you see or read here, do please contact me at enquiries@trainertrackstats.com

Thanks again for your support, and good luck!

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

In putting this guide together, I have tried to make things as easy as possible. However, there are one or two terms which newcomers to jump racing may not understand, and so here is a glossary of terms and their meanings.

Term	Meaning
All	All runners for this trainer at this track
Bumper	See 'Flat'
Chase / Fence / Steeplechase	The larger of the obstacles in NH racing, usually for more mature horses
Flat	A beginner race for NH horses, involving racing without obstacles
Hcap / hcp / handicap	A Handicap is a race where horses carry weight according to their ability, such that each has a theoretically equal chance of winning.
Hurdles / hdl	Hurdles are the smaller of the two types of obstacles which NH racing features.
Maiden	A term for a horse who has yet to win, and a name for a race only open to non-winners
Non-chase	All races (i.e. flat and hurdles) except for chase races
Non-flat	All races (i.e. chases and hurdles) except for flat races
Non-hurdles	All races (i.e. flat and chase) except for hurdle races
Novice / Nov	A race for horses having their first season facing a particular obstacle (either hurdles or chase fences)
yo	'Year old', e.g. 3-7yo refers to horses aged between 3 and 7

Simply check your newspaper daily for the relevant trainers and race types and, if there's a qualifier at 14/1 or shorter, it's a bet! It's as easy as that. But remember, we only bet between September and April, which we consider the real National Hunt season.

DISCLAIMER

Here at Trainer Track Stats, we understand that gambling can become an addiction that can cause great harm if not controlled. Despite the excellent historical track records of our trainers, we remind you that you should only ever bet with an amount of money that you can afford to lose. AINTREE

Commentary

Aintree is known predominantly for the most famous race of them all, the Grand National. Although this race is a real stamina test, the track itself is quite fair, and suits horses with a balance of stamina and speed. It is no surprise to see the three trainers below nominated. Indeed, they appear regularly throughout this guide. All three trainers pride themselves on the fitness of their horses and the soundness of their jumping, attributes which serve Aintree runners particularly well.

ASCOT

Commentary

After an absence of two years while the main stand was rebuilt, Ascot makes a welcome return this Winter, and one man who will look forward to it more than most is Nicky Henderson. Henderson has an enviable record at most of the big tracks, largely due to his ability to place his better horses in the right races.

AYR

Commentary

Situated on the West coast of Scotland, Ayr has a variety of weather conditions for its jump meetings, making it difficult to classify a 'type' of horse. However, in Nicky Richards, Len Lungo and Howard Johnson, we have three Northern stalwart trainers who can be relied upon to hit the board with unerring frequency. Richards and Lungo, particularly, have a multitude of runners through the season, and have historically finished well in front.

BANGOR

Commentary

A compact, almost round track, Bangor suits compact, speedy front runners. Last season was a rare blip at a track which has served us well over the years. Paul Nicholls rarely fails to leave his mark for the full season, and I fully expect this to be rectified over this Winter. Jonjo tends to strike less often, but with bigger priced horses, and he is a Bangor handicap specialist. Look for him to return with a bang at Bangor this season!

CARLISLE

Commentary

A really testing track, and one where the ground is often sodden, Carlisle asks a horse searching stamina questions. The usual suspects make the line up again, with the addition of relative newcomer, Richard Guest. Always a key player as jockey to the gambling Norman Mason stable, Guest has learnt more than how to train horses from his former gov'nor, and can be relied on land a few nice touches again this season.

This sextet between them got us over the £1,000 barrier last season, and we stick with them with confidence for the year to come.

CATTERICK

Commentary

A quirky course is Catterick. Very tight at just a mile and a quarter in circumference, it has some big fences and a long run-in, so a combination of stamina and sprightliness are the order of the day. Sue Smith is an excellent trainer and she troubles the judge frequently here with her hurdlers. Howard Johnson sends some of his smarter novices here, including Turnstile last year. He ran, and won, twice here prior to turning up at the Cheltenham Festival, only to disappoint.

CHELTENHAM

Commentary

The jewel in the jumping game's crown, Cheltenham is a spectacular track in every way. It is wholly appropriate that its natural amphitheatre provides the stage on which to play out the pinnacle of the National Hunt season, the Cheltenham Festival. Historically, Paul Nicholls and Nicky Henderson have been (and remain) trainers to follow here, but the new kid on the block is Alan King. Having taken over from the late David Nicholson, King learnt the game from a savvy tutor, and he's already had some excellent results, most notably My Way De Solzen, winner of this year's Stayers' (now Ladbroke World) Hurdle. This man is definitely a trainer to keep on the right side of generally, and particularly here in non-handicap races.

CHEPSTOW

Commentary

Perceived to be one of the toughest, most stamina-sapping tracks in Britain, the home straight at Chepstow can seem like a very long journey for horses turning in with the lead when the rains have come. But, in fact, when the weather is more clement, Chepstow suits front runners. Again, the Southern superpowers of Nicholls and Hobbs appear. Joining them on this occasion, are Dorset based Robert Alner, who specialises in late maturing chasers (many of whom he acquires from the point-to-point ranks), and Nigel Twiston-Davies, who has enjoyed a resurgence since almost quitting the game a few years ago.

DONCASTER

Commentary

Doncaster is a stiff test for jumpers, and a track that attracts a lot of classy horses, especially for the 'Great Yorkshire Chase'. Unfortunately for TTS fans, there are rarely many qualifiers for us to get our teeth into. However, last year, we had two winners from just two runners, including the 14/1 shot Huckster, from the Venetia Williams Stable. Venetia is another trainer who got back on track last year after a couple of seasons in the doldrums. Expect her to continue her rise to the top of the training tree.

EXETER

Commentary

Exeter racetrack is situated on Haldon Hill and is, unsurprisingly, undulating in its conformation. Again, the West Country big guns do well here (especially the now retired Wizard of Wellington, Martin Pipe). However, most of their horses are overbet and, as such, we look elsewhere for our sustenance. Paul Nicholls makes the cut with his older handicappers, most of whom know their way around Exeter very well. He actually does well with all his runners at the South Devon track, but from a profit perspective, we home in on the veterans.

Former jockey, Jimmy Frost is one to look out for here. He takes over from his father, Richard, who always enjoyed a winner at his local track.

FOLKESTONE

Commentary

One of the lesser lights on the jumping (and indeed the Flat) circuit, Folkestone is nevertheless home to well contested and well supported racing. Our two to follow at the track have struck with 50% of their runners over the past five years, and hopes are high that this will extend into 2006/7. From just eight qualifiers last season, there were five winners, giving TTS followers a healthy return.

FONTWELL

Commentary

A real treat is in store for you the first time you visit Fontwell. Its quirky and intimate, and the figure of eight chase course really lets spectators get close to the action. Its also a great course from a betting perspective, with lots of positive trainer angles to exploit. Brendan Powell is another ex-jockey making good in the training ranks, and he had an impressive 50% strike rate from his 14 qualifiers last season. Can he sustain that this season? Lets hope so.

HAYDOCK

Commentary

One of the toughest tracks in the country, and a home to much quality racing all year round, five of TTS' favourite trainers are nominated to follow here. Each of them enjoyed multiple winners last season, and the track's performance as a whole narrowly failed to break the £1,000 barrier. More of the same will do very nicely.

HEREFORD

Commentary

A right-handed track, galloping in nature and with a circumference of a mile and a half. The circuit is almost square, making for some pretty sharp bends, particularly on the home turn. With this in mind it can pay to follow nippy front runners with the ability to quicken, as they are often able to slip the field.

HEXHAM

Commentary

An undulating left-handed course measuring a mile and a half. There are plenty of twists and turns here so course knowledge is vital. Hence the reason why local trainers Nicky Richards and Howard Johnson invariably do well. Stamina is the key as conditions become extremely testing in wet conditions. The fences are fairly easy but there is a stiff climb to the finish which is on a separate chute.

HUNTINGDON

Commentary

Some star trainers feature here, and last year was a stellar year for TTS, with profits smashing through the £1,000 barrier. The course itself is a right-handed oval of about one and a half miles. It is very flat, and the run-in measures around 100 yards. A reasonably galloping track, with deceptively stiff steeplechase fences.

KELSO

Commentary

An extremely sharp left handed national hunt course that is only a mile in circumference on the hurdles track and a mile and a quarter over fences. The fences are easy but there is a stiff uphill finish. Nippy front runners are often suited. Mudlarks tend to do well here as the ground has a tendency to become very testing due to the clay surface.

Kelso is one of the most picturesque tracks being situated in the Scottish Borders and is noted for it's charming rural atmosphere with an old-fashioned style grandstand. .

KEMPTON

Commentary

Another top class track making a welcome return after renovation work is Kempton – home of the King George Steeplechase, and a host of other big races. The National Hunt course is a mile and three quarters in circumference and the fences are quite stiff. Peter Hobbs is the TTS main man, but is well supported by the top two TTS ladies, Venetia Williams and Henrietta Knight.

LUDLOW

Commentary

A right handed National Hunt track of a mile and a half in circumference. A fair track with average sized fences and a good drainage system so the going is rarely on the testing side. The emphasis is on speed rather than stamina. Ludlow sees lots of TTS action, as there are so many trainers to follow. It was also a proud member of the £1,000 Track Club last year. More of the same will do nicely!

MARKET RASEN

Commentary

Right handed oval jumps track of a mile and a quarter with a slightly undulating run in of 220 yards. A good test of jockeyship with some tricky fences particularly the last, it often favours front-runners and handy types. Not too much of interest for TTS fans here, though Howard Johnson does quite well from a small number of runners, as with 4/1 winner Magnificent Seven last season.

MUSSELBURGH

Commentary

Musselburgh, on the outskirts of Edinburgh, suits a long striding galloping type, and front runners have an excellent record here. Extremes of going are rare as the track drains well, but the fences can be tricky and command respect from all runners. Three Northern based trainers boast proud records here, although last year was a disappointing one overall for TTS fans.

NEWTON ABBOT

Commentary

Newton Abbot in South Devon is a very tight left handed track with a circuit of a mile in circumference. The fences are easy and the course suits the handy type with front-runners hard to catch here. The going can vary from one extreme to the other either being very firm or a real mudbath! Paul Nicholls is the only trainer of note, with his 'fencers' and, curiously, he only had one runner last year. TTS suspects there will be more to come this season from champion trainer.

NEWBURY

Commentary

A top class National Hunt track with a left handed run-in of around four furlongs. The course is galloping in nature and represents a true test of stamina. The fences are difficult and it requires a good jumper just to get round! Charlie Egerton had a fantastic season last year, and enters the TTS fray on that basis, to join more established Newbury protagonists in Messrs Hobbs, Henderson and Nicholls.

NEWCASTLE

Commentary

A left handed oval track of a mile and six furlongs with a steady uphill climb to the finish. It can get very testing on occasions and the emphasis is very much on stamina. The track is galloping in nature and the fences can pose problems. Nicky Richards has a consistent record here, and scored with 8/1 shot Direct Access last season, from just two qualifiers at the track.

PERTH

Commentary

The Northernmost course in the UK, Perth is a right handed track with a level, sharp circuit of a mile and a quarter. The fences are relatively easy which suits front runners and handy types. Due to an excellent watering system, the going is rarely on the firm side. Scottish trainer Nicky Richards is joined by Nigel Twiston-Davies, who nearly always brings a team up for the Perth National Hunt Festival, held at the end of April (also the end of the TTS Season).

PLUMPTON

Commentary

Plumpton is a very sharp left handed circuit of a mile and a furlong, which is undulating with an uphill finish. The fences can be tricky and the ground can become very testing as the track lies on a clay surface. Local trainer Gary Moore has a fantastic record, and consistently hits the board with his many runners here.

SANDOWN

Commentary

A right-handed oval track of a mile and five furlongs in circumference, Sandown also has an uphill finish of about three and a half furlongs, which sees many a front runner get passed late in the day. On the chase track there are three fences close together at the end of the back straight that are known as the 'Railway fences', and these are a stern test for the uninitiated. Last season, Hasty Prince turned a moderate year into a good year, winning as he did at 14/1 on the final day!

SEDFIELD

Commentary

Tony Blair's constituency of Sedgfield boasts an oval, undulating track of about a mile and a quarter in extent, with a run-in of 200 yards from the last obstacle. The tight turns, coupled with the many undulations, mean that it is a venue that is most suited to sharp-actioned handy types. Ferdy Murphy has plenty of runners here, and TTS focuses on his younger horses outside of handicap company.

SOUTHWELL

Commentary

Southwell is an oval course where there is a run-in from the last obstacle of 220 yards. It is noted as a venue where front-runners can take a fair bit of pegging back. There aren't too many meetings here any more, as the all-weather track seems to be the main focus of attention. However, from their occasional entries, Jonjo O'Neill and Venetia Williams usually keep TTS fans smiling.

STRATFORD

Commentary

A favourite course of mine, Stratford is a left-handed oval track of about a mile and a quarter, that has sharp bends and a short home straight. It therefore favours handy, well-balanced horses. There is a run-in of 200 yards from the final obstacle to the finish. As the track stands on a clay surface it does not drain especially quickly, so the ground can become heavy during wet spells. Unfortunately for TTS followers, most of Stratford's fixtures occur in the Summer, and are therefore excluded from the stats found here. However, there are still a few runners each season to merit our attention, including 8/1 and 11/2 winners last year to keep TTS noses in front.

TAUNTON

Commentary

Another Southwestern track, Taunton is an oval of approximately a mile and a quarter, with sharp bends and a run-in of 150 yards (chases) and 200 yards (hurdles) from the final obstacle. There is a steady climb from the final turn up the home straight. The fences are generally regarded as being a little tricky, and it's a venue that often favours the handy, sharp-actioned animal. A disappointing season overall for TTS followers, with no less than eight second-placed horses.

TOWCESTER

Commentary

Towcester (pronounced, 'Toaster'!) is a right-handed, rectangular track of approximately one and three-quarter miles in circumference, with a run-in from the last obstacle of 200 yards. The final six furlongs are steeply uphill, so it is regarded as one of the stiffest courses in the country where stamina is at a premium, especially as the ground can get very testing in wet weather. Nigel Twiston-Davies trains his horses with stamina in mind, and so its not surprising that he does well here.

UTTOXETER

Commentary

A left-handed, gently undulating, 10 furlongs oval with a run-in of 170 yards from the final obstacle. A track that is thought to favour front-runners, with easy bends. The fences here are not regarded as particularly severe. Four winners from twelve runners last year, all at nice prices saw a healthy profit for TTS fans.

WARWICK

Commentary

A sharp, fairly undulating, left-handed track of about a mile and three-quarters in circumference. There is a run-in of 240 yards from the final obstacle. Lots of TTS action here, with personal favourite Alan King notching an impressive six winners from only eight runners. The supporting cast ensured a tidy profit at the Warwickshire course.

WETHERBY

Commentary

Wetherby is an oval, left-handed, level track of approximately a mile and a half round. It is noted as a good galloping course with a run-in of 200 yards. The fences are generally considered to be quite stiff. Its usually a good TTS course, with lots of runners and lots of winners, and 65% of runners making the frame.

WINCANTON

Commentary

A frequent winner of the coveted 'Best Small Racecourse' award, Wincanton is an oval, left-handed, level track of approximately a mile and a half round. It is known as a good galloping course with a run-in of 200 yards. The fences are normally considered to be quite stiff, and many a good horse has been tested round here. Again, there was plenty of action for TTS last year, and a nice profit too, thanks to winners at 10/1, 11/1 and 12/1.
